

Buy American: U.S. Agriculture Supporting Healthy School Meals

Answer Key

1. Including the Buy American provision in the bid specification is important when procuring foods for Federal food assistant programs for all except?
 - A. Controls cost and quality
 - B. Allows vendor's product preference
 - C. Identifies product specification
 - D. Supports the US economy

2. Which product is not a domestic commodity or product?
 - A. Peaches from Georgia
 - B. Oranges from Florida
 - C. Apples from Washington
 - D. Mandarin Oranges from China

3. The criteria a district might include to justify instances of accepting nondomestic product substitution is if
 - A. the product substitution was identified and approved before the contract was awarded
 - B. the product substitution was a bonus buy
 - C. the product substitution cannot be sent back to vendor
 - D. the product substitution contains 3 extra pounds to the case

4. What is not a way your district ensures in solicitations and contracts the purchases of domestic product to the maximum extent practicable?
 - A. Allow vendors to deliver only products that are available
 - B. Post Buy American language on district's website
 - C. Develop standard operating procedures
 - D. Include specific language in bid specifications and contracts

5. Ways to incorporate a domestic product into the school menu include:
 - A. Using USDA Foods.
 - B. Substituting a different domestic product if there is a product shortage.
 - C. Planning menus to include seasonal, locally grown products.
 - D. Implementing all of the above responses.

January 22, 2019