DO NOT RESPOND:

- Let it stand.

RESPOND:

Work with your colleagues to craft an accurate and appropriate response. Make sure it is approved by the appropriate person before sending.

REMOVE:

Remove the content using the steps outlined in your social media policy or guidelines. If the issue persists, point to your organization’s guidelines for inappropriate content.

DO NOT RESPOND:

Let it stand, but monitor for escalation.

CORRECT:

Work with your colleagues to verify the correct information. Respond by correcting the information in a timely, positive and professional way.

RESOLVE:

Acknowledge the concern and respect their privacy by inviting them to continue the discussion offline. This could be by phone, email, or other customer service channels, depending on what’s outlined in your organization’s social media policy.

RESPONSE CONSIDERATIONS

Keep these things in mind when you’re crafting your response:

- Respect Privacy: Don’t share or invite others to share personal information on public channels.
- Respect Ownership: Cite your sources. If you’re sharing or drawing from someone else’s information or material, then say so.
- Be Credible: Stick to the facts and avoid value judgments.
- Be Appropriate: Your tone should be appropriate to the situation and should reflect positively on your organization.
