MARV

- ▶ Bus that could no longer transport kids – 25 years old (Kansas State Law KSA-8-2009a, KSA-8-1461)
- ▶ Retro-fitted to include 8 dinette tables.
- ▶ There are no kids on the bus when it is in motion. Driver pulls up to the designated site and up to 32 kids can eat inside the bus at one time.
- ▶ Students from Iola High School helped in transforming the old bus into MARV.
 - Vo-Ag Welding Class – took out seats and reconfigured into dinettes
 - Industrial Arts Class – produced the tables and book holders
 - Art Class – designed and painted the bus

MARV – Art Class

- ▶ What does MARV allow us to do?
 - Expand sites
 - Fewer staff and volunteers needed
 - Provide “brunch” options to certain locations
 - Provide meals to under-served kids in our school district that we could not get to before

MARV, continued

- ▶ Reading Component of MARV
 - Opportunity for kids to check-out books after meal
 - Areas MARV is serving also has limited access to libraries and books
 - Through donations, books and other reading materials will be purchased or provided for this purpose
 - No hassle approach – on your honor check-out and check-in.
